Natasha: Iâ€™m a girl who believes in science and facts. Not fate. Not destiny. Or dreams that will never come true. Iâ€™m definitely not the kind of girl who meets a cute boy on a crowded New York City street and falls in love with him. Not when my family is twelve hours away from being deported to Jamaica. Falling in love with him wonâ€™t be my story.

Daniel: Iâ€™ve always been the good son, the good student, living up to my parentsâ€™ high expectations. Never the poet. Or the dreamer. But when I see her, I forget about all that. Something about Natasha makes me think that fate has something much more extraordinary in storeâ€™ for both of us.

The Universe: Every moment in our lives has brought us to this single moment. A million futures lie before us. Which one will come true?
